AS STUDENTS WITH DYSLEXIA

struggle with spoken language, reading, spelling, and writing, educators want the BEST APPROACH to literacy success.

Every student with dyslexia can succeed with appropriate and timely instruction.

Help each student conquer reading challenges and succeed in school and life.

(Language Essentials for Teachers of Reading and Spelling)

Grades K-12

With the right professional learning, teachers can appropriately support students with dyslexia.

The LETRS® suite of research-based literacy professional development enables teachers to apply best practices for all students, especially targeting those who are struggling with underlying language learning problems. The course of study aligns to the IDA's Knowledge and Practice Standards for Teachers of Reading.

LETRS helps literacy educators understand:

- What must be taught during reading and spelling lessons to obtain the best results
- How to explain spoken and written English language structures to students
- Why reading instruction has several key components and how they are related, based on current scientific research
- How to interpret individual differences in student achievement, based on valid and reliable assessments and theoretical models
- How to implement instructional routines and activities, and differentiate instruction for all students

For use in remote, hybrid, and face-to-face learning models, LETRS literacy professional learning is Remote Ready and offers dynamic formats for:

- Independent online learning
- Facilitated online learning
- Facilitated in-person learning
- Hybrid learning

RECOGNIZE AND NURTURE the many talents and skills in every learner.

Turn literacy struggles into successful learning experiences with language-based explicit, systematic instruction and solutions featuring a Structured Literacy approach.

Structured Literacy addresses all of the essential components of reading, plus oral language and writing, and it is the approach endorsed by the International Dyslexia Association's Board of Directors.

Structured Literacy is:

- Systematic and Cumulative. Material is organized to follow a scope and sequence that is a progression of easier-to-more-difficult language concepts and structures. Each new step must be based on concepts previously learned.
- Explicit Instruction. All instruction should deliberately teach all concepts with continuous student-teacher interaction. It is not assumed students will naturally develop an understanding of these concepts on their own, through exposure to text, or through incidental instruction.
- Diagnostic Teaching. The teacher must use diagnostic assessments to carry out individualized instruction. Both formal and informal assessments are used for screening, progress monitoring, and educational diagnostics.
