

Hi! I'm TJ Ticket from Ticket to Read[®], and I'm letting you know it's time for me to find a nice quiet clubhouse to retire. I'm passing along my responsibilities to my friend, Dewey, the librarian in a new Voyager Sopris Learning[®] product, Reading Rangers.

I've loved supporting students in practicing their reading skills. Dewey will love it too.

The features you enjoyed with Ticket to Read remain, and Reading Rangers will continue to provide practice for students in foundational skills, as well as practice for students in vocabulary, fluency, and comprehension. So, you know you can rely on the same level of online practice you trusted me to provide.

There's even more fun ahead as Dewey and his friends in Reading Rangers go on journeys to rescue animals.

I'll hang around in Ticket to Read through the summer—that's about the time Adobe[®] Flash won't be supported in many browsers and I'll move on for good. I just wanted you to know early so you aren't surprised when I'm gone.

The exciting news I want to share, though, is Dewey will open Reading Rangers a bit early and give you a sneak peek. Be sure to watch for more information coming soon. You and your students can begin using a special release of Reading Rangers early—before anyone else—this spring. You all are great! Farewell!
