

A Proven Approach to Raising Reading Achievement

NEW

for Administrators

Champion change with LETRS for Administrators

LETRS® (Language Essentials for Teachers of Reading and Spelling) for Administrators is a course of study that combines A Principal's Primer for Raising Reading Achievement with an online component and optional face-to-face training to help instructional leaders create the systems and structures needed to improve overall literacy instruction.

LETRS for Administrators helps literacy leaders:

- Create efficient methods of analyzing student data
- Establish effective instructional blocks in literacy
- Examine resources for all tiers of instruction
- Support their LETRS professional development participants

The research-based course complements LETRS and guides state, district, or building leaders in implementing research-based, multitiered instruction. Administrators are provided specific steps for facilitating change, developing a comprehensive assessment plan, managing resources, assembling a school leadership team, and making data-based decisions.

A Principal's Primer for Raising Reading Achievement

Pati Montgomery, Ed.S., Melody Ilk, M.A., and Louisa Moats, Ed.D.

A Principal's Primer for Raising Reading Achievement is a how-to manual for principals who want to improve the overall reading performance of an elementary or middle school population. It explains in very practical terms exactly how a principal can lead a school-wide implementation of research-based, multitier reading instruction.
